

The HSUS Humane State Program presents
Equine & Large Animal Cruelty Investigations
Free Daylong Training

---

Topics include:

- Standards of care and how to assess physical and living conditions
- Common conditions and potential causes
- Basic disease information
- Interpreting and applying relevant Ohio laws
- Investigating cruelty reports, unique considerations
- Interviews, warrants, and evidence collection
- Preparing for and executing a seizure
- Ongoing care, resources and case management

Lunch provided, raffle prizes, certificate of participation issued.

Register Today!

Visit animalsheltering.org/OHequine to reserve your seat.

Wednesday, November 6 – Clermont area: University of Cincinnati - Clermont College

Thursday, November 7 – Columbus: Chester C. Christie Training Center

Friday, November 8 – Medina: University of Akron - Medina County University Center

8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. all locations

The Humane Society of the United States thanks the following organization for its support:

OHIO ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE

